Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome back.

I hope you all had a happy and a safe half term break.

The children in School have had a great week with a visit from the poet Ian Bland who shared his poems with the children and helped them to write and perform their own. I hope the children who bought his books enjoy them.

In addition, Years 3 and 4 were involved in bread making, trying to recreate the recipes from the Stone Age.

Today, all children are involved in Remembrance Day activities and the results of their hard work will be displayed in and around School.

We continue to keep to the Government guidelines regarding COVID19 and please be assured that Ian Bland had his temperature taken before he entered School and maintained a social distance from the children. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your continued support in this area.

I hope you have a good weekend.

Mrs Burrows.
